

Challenge 2

1

What is the largest area in Canada and the United States that is densely populated (over 250 people per square mile)? What are four cities in that area?

2

In which state in the United States can you find all of the following climates: arid, semiarid, Mediterranean, highlands, and marine west coast?

3

Which resource is most abundant in Texas, Alaska, and Alberta? Which state or province appears to have the most of that resource?

4

Which four territories and states have both a subarctic and a tundra climate and include land that is both north and south of the Arctic Circle?

5

What is the most common type of vegetation in the central area of southern Canada and the United States? Which country has more land with that type of vegetation?

6

What types of land use occur along both the Pacific Coast and the Atlantic Coast of Canada and the United States?

7

Which Canadian island has a population density that ranges from under 2 people to as many as 250 people per square mile?

8

Which five lakes together make up the largest body of fresh water in Canada and the United States?

9

Which Canadian provinces or territories are entirely covered in forests? Which kinds of forest are found there?

10

What are ten provinces, territories, and states that the Rocky Mountains run through?